Failed Polygraph

Irma Rodriguez was asked to conduct a polygraph examination by the prosecution. David Page FAILED his polygraph. the portions that eh failed on was about if he shot the victims are not.

Irma Rodriguez was allowed to testify in court , but only 'outside' of the jury's presence.

So the jury was not able to know that David Page failed a polygraph. This is a result of a procedural rule enforced by the courts in the United States.

Page tried to tell as much of the truth as he could.

he states that Clinton dropped David Page off so eh could go to the police station.

If Clinton had just killed two people in front of David Page do you think he would just take David Page to the police station?

You can also notice how the prosecutors office had no problem going to a completely different jurisdiction to get the polygraph test done. yet they couldn't go to their own police department to get the gunshot residue forensic testing that would have helped to exonerate Clinton.

DL: [REDACTED] TEXAS, SSN: [REDACTED]

CASE BRIEF: On this date, David Lee PAGE (in the presence of his attorney-H.W. Leverett (Jr.), Investigator Luckie and Deputy Kent Spencer) gave this investigator a synopsis of what took place in the murders of Doyle Douglas and Samuel Petry.

On Sunday morning at about 2:00 a.m., (PAGE said that) he, Clinton YOUNG, Mark F and Darnell MCCOY were in Longview, Texas with Doyle Douglas. PAGE said that YOUNG shot DOUGLAS on the right side of the head with a .22 caliber automatic. YOUNG said the bullets bounced off DOUGLAS'S head. DOUGLAS was placed in the trunk of his car and driven to an area just inside Harrison County. PAGE said he could hear a gurgling sound come from the trunk as they drove to a location to dump the body. PAGE said he knew that DOUGLAS was still alive.

In Harrison County, all present helped remove DOUGLAS from the trunk of the car. PAGE said that YOUNG threatened to shoot them if they did not participate. PAGE said that RAY shot DOUGLAS on the back of the head with a .22 caliber revolver. DOUGLAS'S body was left in Harrison County. PAGE said the revolver belonged to "Hippie" HALLMARK and once returning to Longview, the revolver was returned to HALLMARK. (A .380 caliber weapon was also in the car at the time of DOUGLAS'S murder, but was not used to kill DOUGLAS.)

PAGE said all four returned to Longview in DOUGLAS'S car. RAY and MCCOY were dropped off in Longview and YOUNG drove PAGE to Ore City, Texas.

PAGE said YOUNG drove them to an oil lease. As PЕТRY paced back and forth, smoking a cigarette, PAGE said YOUNG shot PЕТRY in the head twice. PЕТRY'S truck was left there. PAGE said they cleaned the truck out. PAGE grabbed the .22 shells, butterfly knife and a pair of gloves. PAGE stuffed the .22 shells and the butterfly into a glove and threw them out in the field. YOUNG grabbed the tire tool and threw it out in a well.

PAGE said after they left the oil lease, he told YOUNG to drop him off at the police station. Not knowing their way around Midland, YOUNG dropped PAGE off at an IHOP Restaurant. PAGE said he walked around for a long time before walking up to the county courthouse.

PAGE told this investigator that he did not shoot DOUGLAS or PЕТRY. PAGE said that he did not touch or pull the trigger on any of the weapons used to shoot DOUGLAS and PЕТRY.
