

statements from people that knew Clinton

The following are statements provided recently by people that knew Clinton.

Margaret Fant was one of Clinton's former teachers. She still writes & occasionally visits Clinton. In her statement she makes mention of a gun that Clinton brought to school when he was 9 years old. This gun was an antique & did not work. There were no bullets in the gun or for the gun.

Amber was Clinton's girlfriend at the time this case took place. At trial the lawyers failed to get out the good about Clinton & only focused on how he was while on drugs.

DECLARATION OF MARGARET FANT

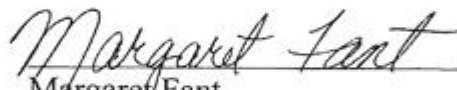

I, Margaret Fant, declare as follows:

1. I was Clinton Young's fifth grade teacher while Clint was in the Jefferson Independent School District.
2. I remember Clint as a sweet, very respectful kid who tried very hard, although he gave up real fast when it came to his schoolwork.
3. I have a pet peeve about individuals who are smart-alecky and disrespectful. Clint, however, was never like that towards me. I never saw him act out, even with other children. I never sent Clint to the principle's office for anything.
4. Our school was small, and Clint had a reputation for being disruptive. I recall he had brought an unloaded gun to school when he was younger. I thought he was just a kid wanting attention. I assumed he was troubled and had a difficult home situation.
5. I felt that Clint did well with me because he just needed someone to talk to him, treat him like a human being, and give him guidance. It wasn't that I let him run over me, he did not even try to. He was troubled, but he had a lot of potential.

6. On September 9, 2008, I was contacted by an investigator of the Office of the Federal Public Defender regarding Clint Young. The investigator explained to me that her office represented Clint in federal court proceedings reviewing his conviction and death sentence. I recall being interviewed by Clint's defense team prior to the trial. I was very willing to testify, but was never called. I have read and reviewed this two-page declaration.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Texas that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and that this declaration was executed this 34 day of September, 2008 in Longview, Texas.

DECLARATION OF ROBIN MANN

I, Robin Mann, declare as follows:

1. In 2001, I lived with my girlfriend, Amanda Williams, at Shady Shores, a motel managed by Bart and Rose Lynch.
2. Almost everyone at the motel was on drugs, including Bart.
3. Amanda and I lived there because it was affordable. Everyone at the hotel was like family. Amanda and I ended up feeding everyone.
4. Clinton Young was dating Bart's daughter, Amber. Amanda looked after Amber and treated her and Clint like family. Amanda helped Amber and Clint look after Amber's sister's kids.
5. Clint was awesome. He would do anything to help anyone out. He was respectful, honest, and reliable, although he would act like a hardass around his friends.
6. I also knew David Page, Jr. I knew him as "JR." I didn't like JR because he was manipulative. He was always strange and used speed, or methamphetamine, with needles.
7. On September 10, 2008, I was contacted by an investigator of the Office of the Federal Public Defender regarding Clint Young. The investigator explained to me that their office represented Clint in federal court proceedings

DECLARATION OF AMBER LYNCH HARRISON

I, Amber Harrison, declare as follows:

1. I met Clinton Lee Young in the Spring of 2001, when I was 15 years old. Clint was about 17 years old. Clint was my first real boyfriend.
2. I met Clint through my step sister, Debbie. Debbie was dating Clint's half brother, Dano. At the time, Debbie and I lived at our father Bart's motel at Shady Shores in East Texas.
3. When I first met Clint, he was very clean and well groomed. He was also very nice and outgoing, considerate and respectful. Everyone liked being around Clint.
4. Clint had recently been released from the Texas Youth Commission. He was living with his mother and taking classes at a community college.
5. At the motel, Debbie and Dano shared a room, and I had my own room that I shared with Clint. Later my dad made us all move into the office. Debbie and Dano stayed in the bedroom and Clint and I stayed in the living room with Debbie's two kids.
6. Everyone at the motel was using drugs, including my father, my Uncle Doyle, and my sister Debbie. I did not use drugs, and at first, neither did Clint.

7. Clint and I took care of Debbie's children as Debbie was often strung out on drugs. Debbie's kids were Darmi, who was 3 years old, and Michael, who was going on 5 or 6 years old. Clint and I didn't just babysit the kids, we fully took care of them including feeding them, getting them ready for school, bathing them, and putting them to bed.

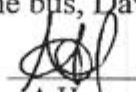

8. Clint and I hung out constantly. The two of us went everywhere together except when Clint thought a situation might not be safe for me. He was very protective of me.

9. Everything seemed fine with Clint until he started using drugs. I remember going out one night with a friend. When I returned the next day, I saw needle marks on Clint's arms and I suspected he had used drugs with Dano and Debbie.

10. I was very upset at Clint, and told him I thought he was better than that. I stayed with Clint, and Clint kept his drug use hidden from me, although I suspected he was still using drugs.

11. My relationship with Clint went downhill during his drug use. When I first met Clint, he wanted everything to be clean. But after he started using drugs, it appeared he stopped caring about his personal hygiene.

12. I knew David Page, Jr. from school. I knew him as "J.R." David was creepy, I didn't like him very much. I remember one time on the bus, David Page told a black kid that he could kill him and nobody would care because our school flew a rebel flag. David used drugs while we were in school together.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New Mexico that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and that this declaration was executed this 25 day of September, 2008 in Eunice, New Mexico
